

Career Objective

I'm chasing opportunities to grow my love for everything from analogue electronics to full-stack web development. I love active problem-solving, and tinkering around with an ever-evolving project until it's exactly right. I enjoy learning & seeing how technology can be applied to improve human lives—whether through software, hardware, or a beautiful combination of both.

I'm a driven, reliable team player with proven leadership skills, and a knack for effective communication. I'm always looking to learn new things and grow as a person—and I apply this mindset to everything I do.

Skills Summary

Problem Solving

- I'm a natural problem solver, and apply my strong logical thinking to challenging situations. I leave things better than I found them, working methodically to arrive at an optimal solution.
- I've created a personnel development framework, and implemented a digital workspace to consolidate data, administration, and procedures into a single source of truth.

Communication Skills

- I'm an effective communicator with an aptitude for breaking down challenging concepts.
- I help appreciative first-years with intuitive explanations for difficult, technical concepts. I also tutored English, Maths, and Science at high school.
- I've acquired experience in presentation skills, public speaking, and self-confidence through my New Zealand Cadet Forces development courses.

Leadership

- I'm passionate about intent-based leadership and understanding each member's strengths and weaknesses—I strongly believe the whole is greater than the sum of its parts.
- I was a Prefect and Deputy House Captain at high school, a Cadet Warrant Officer Class Two in the NZCF, and led the House Haka in Years 11–13.
- I was appointed to be the Regimental Sergeant Major for a highly successful Recruit Training Course with units from across the Upper North Island.

Teamwork

- I strive to be an asset to any team, and try to morph into whatever role is in demand. I'm often counted on for my punctuality and reliability—I don't make promises I can't keep.
- I was a member of my high school's Premier Lacrosse and Premier Target Shooting teams, and know the importance of teamwork and collective buy-in.
